

PROJECT MYCELIUM CONTRIBUTOR AGREEMENT (v2)

Date: _____

1. Purpose

This Agreement outlines the terms under which Contributors participate in Project Mycelium, including rights, responsibilities, and revenue sharing.

2. Roles and Revenue Shares

Revenue generated by any Project Mycelium product is distributed as follows:

- Founder(s): 30%
- Contributors: 50%, distributed proportionally based on approved tracked contributions
- Project Representatives: 10%, shared among those assigned to the given project
- Treasury: 10%, for hosting, infrastructure, and growth

3. Contribution Recognition

A contributor is eligible to receive shares only if contributions are:

- Approved via GitHub Pull Requests or official task assignments
- Merged into the codebase or included in official documentation or marketing

Tracking is done through:

- GitHub commits and issue references
- The All Contributors specification (or a DAO registry if on-chain)

4. Intellectual Property (IP) & Licensing

All contributions are made under the MIT License, unless stated otherwise.

By signing this agreement, you agree to assign or license your contributions to the Project under this license.

The Contributor retains moral rights but agrees not to assert them to hinder Project use.

5. Termination

A contributor may leave the project at any time by written notice. Revenue shares will:

- Continue to be paid on already-merged contributions

PROJECT MYCELIUM CONTRIBUTOR AGREEMENT (v2)

- Stop accruing on future contributions after departure
- Be paused if the contributor is inactive for 6+ months unless prior agreement exists

6. Dispute Resolution

Disputes arising out of this agreement will be resolved by:

- First, good faith discussion between parties
- Second, mediation through a neutral third-party community moderator
- Third, binding arbitration under Austrian law, unless otherwise agreed

7. Governing Law

This agreement is governed by the laws of Austria.
